ABOUT THE LOCK IN

The Artist Lock In, now in its fifth year, is the flagship residency produced by ArtHouse Jersey in partnership with WildWorks. We are seeking artists from all backgrounds and disciplines to apply for this inspiring experience.

Facilitated by Sue Hill (Wildworks, Eden Project), artists will spend 10 days living and working together, learning from each other's practice and responding to the natural environment. Away from the distractions of everyday life, the Lock In encourages an atmosphere in which to explore new approaches and different styles of making.

This is a supported opportunity to fill your lungs with fresh sea air, step out of your comfort zone and collaborate with artists from across the globe without the pressure of a deadline or expectation of a fully finished outcome.

For the first time, the Artist Lock In will take place at Greve De Lecq Barracks, ArtHouse Jersey's new home. In a sheltered bay on the North coast of Jersey, Greve De Lecq Barracks will become your playground for the duration of the residency. Dating from 1810 the Barracks are in close proximity to coastal paths, beaches and woodland making it the perfect environment to rewild your practice.

We are particularly interested in hearing from artists who are keen to explore what our role might be in shaping our future and how the arts can have a positive impact in a rapidly changing environment.

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

The Lock In is a rustic experience with most of the time spent outside making work in the landscape. Participants should be prepared to brave the elements and get dirt beneath their fingernails.

We are interested in hearing from artists of all disciplines and backgrounds. You must be over the age of 18 and professionally committed to your craft.

The residency will be facilitated in English so you will be required to have a confident working understanding of the language.

This is an international multi-disciplinary residency. We ask for artists to be open minded and have a generous attitude towards working with others.

Artists are required to travel to Jersey at their own expense or at the expense of a cultural organisation of their home jurisdiction. Participants must make necessary travel arrangements to arrive at Greve De Lecq Barracks, Jersey at 15:00 on Sunday 22nd September and depart on Tuesday 1st October 2019.

Interested Artists are asked to apply by filling out the following application form and up to 4 examples of their work (as digital files) by email to Francesca Duncan (francesca@arts.je) by 18:00 (GMT+1) on Monday 31st May 2019.
